

Michigan is getting closer to a fair employment practices law. Although Democratic efforts failed in the last regular session, Rep. Louis Crampton (R-Lapeer) now has submitted an R. E. P. C. bill which apparently transcends partisan politics.

The state-national civil defense program has not bogged down but there is dissension between Lansing and Washington. Millard Cadwell, federal CD administrator, urges the state legislature to create a "basic civil defense structure."

Brig. Gen. Lester J. Maitland, head of the state's program, says federal efforts are following in bureaucracy. Cadwell hopes to get $250,000,000 in federal funds to match state appropriations.

The American Meat Institute of Food distribution says "aggressive retailers are advertising more special prices than 30 days ago," and that this competition will be more effective in keeping food prices down than the legal controls ordered by Washington.

In the larger cities buyer resistance to meat prices is backing houses in a tizzy. Officials have been meeting to decide what to do about their bulging cold rooms. They could drop prices.

Michigan's automobile industry is making no predictions. Word around Detroit is "we should be able to do very well until June or July." Nobody knows after that.

Politics already! Will Fred M. Alger, Jr., run for governor in 1952? He hints as much. He probably would have opposed Williams in the last election but he waited too long to get into the primary waiting for higher G. C. P. word.

And concerning the presidency? Only one thing seems to be certain. Gen. Dwight Eisenhower is popular today with the voters. He is in Michigan as in the remainder of the Midwest.

Leap year is more than a joke to the government. Due in 1952 again, the 366-day year will cost taxpayers an extra $167,000 for the additional days paid to federal employees, according to Michigan's Senator Ferguson.

Tin stockpiling has stopped officially for the time being, while the government tries to beat down the price. But the federal government now is the sole importer of the metal unless special permission is given.

Illinois, Indiana And Michigan Guardmen To Undergo Heavy Field Training At Camp Grayling Facilities of Camp Grayling, training ground for the Michigan National Guard since before World War I, will be put to extensive use this coming summer, according to present 1951 field training plans.

Under present plans Michigan Guardmen will pay host to two visiting Guard divisions at the Hanson State Military Reservation. Out-of-state divisions slated to train at Grayling are Illinois 33rd Inf. Div. and Indiana's 38th Inf. Div.

Field training dates have been set at 30 June to 14 July for the "Prairie" Div. of Illinois and 22 July to 8 August for the "Cyclone" Div. of Indiana.

Rails and roads leading out of Grayling will hardly be cooled before our own 46th Inf. Div. rendezvous for the fifth postwar encampment of the Michigan National Guard, 11 to 25 August.

Expand Facilities. Expansion of facilities for housing and training Michigan's 46th Inf. Div. will continue this summer with construction of additional units in Camp Grayling's "C" area, it has been announced by the Quartermaster General's office.

Construction firms will bid this month on plans and specifications for four new mess halls, three bath houses, and 76 concrete tent floors in the area occupied by the 425th Inf. Regt. and the 107th Eng. C. Bn., at the 1950 field training encampment. Firms will also bid on construction of an addition to the camp commissary and on planned improvements to the camp's roads and electrical system.

Plans and specifications for the new construction at Camp Grayling were to be released to bidders 12 March. They were prepared by Giffels & Vallet, Detroit architects.

Spike Alert Rumor. Rumors that the 46th Inf. Div. will be ordered into active military service about 1 April have no basis, Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army Chief of Staff, said while on a recent visit to Fort Custer.

He said no plans have been made to call up additional National Guard units in the immediate future, barring unforeseen developments.

General Collins climaxed his inspection of Michigan's defenses with a visit to Camp Lucas and the strategically important locks at Sault Ste. Marie.

Plan Night Shift. Officers and men assigned to army units of the Michigan National Guard will spend at least one night in the field between now and 30 June, according to Training Memorandum No. 3, Hq.

Music Recital Well Attended. A large crowd enjoyed the musical program at the Grayling High School auditorium last Thursday evening when Mrs. June Taylor presented her piano and vocal students in a recital.

Many of the students wore costumes depicting the songs they played or sang. Following is the program:

"Over the Rainbow," Patsy Weisman in a simplified arrangement for piano; Linda Sneek, "Peg O' My Heart" piano; Daria Boger "Peggie O' Neal" piano; Sherrie Gowing, "Loves Old Sweet Song," vocal Ella Mae Cook, "O' Man River," piano; Julie Hunter, vocal, "Shoppers-Creole Song," Francis Bushamp, piano, "Moonlight and Roses," all class one pupils.

Class two pupils taking part were Helene Balch, "The Voice of the Cello," piano; Claudette Long, piano, "The Anniversary Song," Susan Bidvia, vocal, "Japanese Sandman," Joanne Cinciala, "Happy Holiday," piano; Judy Weaver, piano, "The Wedding of the Painted Doll," Connie Davis, vocal, "When Love is Kind," Carol Jayne Fenton, "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," Lou Ann McEvers, vocal, "Little Brack Sheep," Karen Rasmussen, piano, "Darktown Strutters Ball," vocal, Venetian Carnival Song, Jeanne Roberts, "A Dream is a Wish Your Heart Makes," Mary Richardson, piano "On the Meadow," vocal, "Two Marionettes," Cora Ann LaGrow, vocal, "A Perfect Day" and "It," Jeanne Sorenson, vocal, "You Belong to My Heart," and "There's No Tomorrow," Joanne Andrews, "Theme From Warsaw Concerto," piano; Jeanne Lovely, vocal, "Morning," piano "The Bird's Reverie," Betsy Niederer, vocal, "There's a Merry Brown Thrush" and "Wonderful One."

Those who were unable to appear on the program because of illness were Donna Lee Morency, Bradey Stephan, Greta Rasmussen and Marilyn Burch.

Mrs. Clarence Parrish assisted Mrs. Taylor in helping to make the costumes for the recital.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Randolph and daughter, Miss Phyllis, expect to leave today to spend the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Papendick (Joan) in Flint and Mrs. Ernest Bernette in Detroit.

Miss Sue Giegling is home from Michigan State College to spend Easter vacation with her parents.

The night under the stars will be part of 12 additional training periods authorized for Michigan National Guard army units before the end of June. These additional training periods are authorized in an inactive duty training status for the purpose of conducting outdoor training, preferably on week ends.

At least three week ends or six training periods must be spent in the field with six hours of instruction per day. Units must remain overnight in the field during at least one of these week end training periods. The other two week ends in the field may be used by units for qualification and familiarization firing of individual and crew served weapons.

On their overnight trips into the field, units will stress training in establishment of a bivouac, training in individual and unit tactical maneuvers, and conduct of marches. Units may combine these types of training with week end firing if they so desire.

Unit commanders have been directed to make arrangements for overnight field exercises relatively close to home stations.

Units will conduct week end firing of small and crew served weapons either in the vicinity of their home stations, at Fort Custer or at Camp Grayling. Plans for this week end training were to have been submitted by units to Hq. 46th Inf. Div. by 10 March.

Camp Grayling ranges will be available to units from 19 May to 24 June. The known distance rifle and pistol ranges at Fort Custer will be available to Michigan Guardmen from 1 April to 30 June.

Grass Roots Opinion

Bristol, R. I., Phoenix: "With taxes steadily increasing on all levels, local, state and Federal, it becomes more necessary than ever that we choose wisely those things for which we shall and shall not spend our money. . . . The average tax load per family today is equal to about $2,137 as compared to $360 in 1939."

Abilene, Kan., Daily Reflector-Chronicle: "A personal visit to England, by a competent correspondent gives a rather grim picture of life over there under socialism. The state now runs banks, utilities, the railroads, the coal mines, iron and steel industries, controls land sales, medicine and generally runs the country. Nobody can get a job except working for the government. . . . Living is costly."

Dashing through the "dough" . . . in a wild-horse sort of way.

'Round and 'round we go . . . "gripping" as we pay; Bills and belles and bawls . . . make things tough and tight.

What nerve it takes to work all month . . . and be broke pay-day night.

Where does our money go . . . what makes it slide so slick?

It goes only half as far . . . or gets there twice as quick.

"Buck" won't do for us now, . . . as much as it once did.

'Cause we won't do as much for it . . . and that's why it has slid.

Yes, Income and Earnings Are Two Different Things

It's true that because we are serving more customers and handling more calls than ever before that our income is up. But, expenses have increased faster than income.

Increased rates are required to meet increased operating costs in the form of wages, taxes, and increased costs for materials and services. Increased rates are also needed to enable the Company to earn a reasonable return on the fair value of its property, and in order to attract the capital funds required for the expansion and improvement of its plant.

We will fail in meeting our obligations to our customers unless we are granted the means to do so in the form of adequate rates.

By G. MENNEN WILLIAMS
Governor of Michigan

Lansing — Last week I sent a message to the Legislature defining my position on the whole subject of taxes.

In that message I suggested a way to finance a road building and road repair program without additional gasoline taxes.

This can be accomplished by levying a 4 per cent tax on corporation profits and earmarking a part of the proceeds for the Highway Fund. These revenues could be sent directly to the Highway Fund, without putting them into the General Fund. Thus, they would not be available for any purpose except roads.

The Figures: If we thus earmarked the proceeds of 1 per cent of the 4 per cent corporation profits tax, we would get from that source about $23,000,000 a year for highways.

Added to the proposed increase of about $4,000,000 in truck taxes, this would give us about $27,000,000 additional road funds.

If we need more money than that to finance a highway program (which is open to serious question) we could easily get it by earmarking 1 1/2 per cent of the corporation tax rate.

That would yield a fund of about $34,000,000 for highways, about a half million more than the expected returns from a 2-cent gas tax increase. With $4,000,000 in added truck taxes, this would give us a total of $38,500,000 for our highway program.

That is more money than the Good Roads Federation or anyone else has asked for the 15-year road building program.

Uncle Sam Would Help: By earmarking a part of the corporation profits tax, we could actually rebuild our roads without any additional contribution from Michigan taxpayers.

The taxes paid under this plan to the state would be deductible items when a corporation makes out its federal income tax. About 47 cents of every dollar paid to the state would come back to the corporation from Uncle Sam in the form of reduced federal taxes.

This would be substantially more than the sum we would need to reserve for highways. The whole road program could be paid for in effect, with federal funds.

That would be one way to get back some of the taxes Michigan citizens pay into the federal treasury.

Senate Acts: I felt that the time had come to make my position on taxes clear, because the Senate has embarked upon a tax program which would cost taxpayers about $45,000,000 annually.

The Senate has adopted and sent to the House a bill to raise the gas tax by 1 1/2 cents per gallon—a bill to increase weight taxes on trucks by $4,000,000 annually; and a measure which would impose a 3 per cent tax on the privilege on driving a good used car.

For the increased truck tax there may be a good case. But as I told the Legislature in my message, the other two tax bills represent direct income reductions for almost every family in Michigan. Both the used car tax and the increased gas tax would be direct taxes on consumers.

That is not good, because consumers in this state already pay 80 per cent off our total tax revenues, as compared with an average of less than 60 per cent for the 48 states as a whole.

Only the Beginning: These tax bills must be regarded as only the beginning. The 1 1/2 cent increase in gasoline taxes will not raise enough money to satisfy some of the proponents of a road program, and efforts will be made to increase it to 2 cents. The used car tax would produce only a fraction of the money needed to balance the state's general fund and wipe out an accumulated deficit which is approaching the $40,000,000 mark.

So if the policy of "soak the little guy" is followed, it will end in a colossal additional tax bill for the families of Michigan.

That is why I felt it necessary to ask the Legislature to call a halt on this consumer tax policy, until we could take a good look at the whole question.

Used Car Tax: Proponents of the used car tax say it is for the purpose of plugging a loophole through which some auto dealers are evading the present sales tax on used cars.

If legislation is needed to stop this chisel, let us by all means have a new law for this specific purpose.

But the proposed used car tax, I told the Legislature, would go far beyond that objective. It would be a completely new tax on every farmer who buys a truck from his neighbor, and on every motorist who buys a second hand car from another individual through a want ad. Under the present sales tax law such individual sales are not taxed.

Furthermore, the bill would withdraw from the school districts and the cities about $4,000,000 in sales tax money which is now derived from the present sales tax on used cars sold by dealers. This bill would make it all a "use tax" and put it all into the state's general fund. I doubt if the school districts and cities will hold still for this.

"One-Package Tax": In contrast with this patchwork of proposed taxes, bearing almost entirely on the pockets of consumers, a corporation profits tax would solve our entire financial problem in one "package."

One per cent or 1 1/2 per cent on profits would fix the roads. And the remaining yield of such a tax (from $46 to $58 million) would be available to meet our general fund deficit.

By earmarking part of the corporation profits tax for the Highway Fund for the 15-year or 20-year period of the highway program, we could make sure of a continuing and dependable highway income.

Gas taxes may be reduced by the defense emergency, but corporation profits are likely to go up rather than down.

Who Is the Road User? Those who can see no other solution to the highway problem except an increased gas tax, have made much of the slogan "those who use the roads should pay for them."

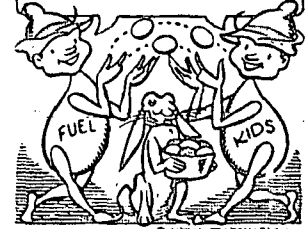

That is a proposition with which we can all agree, provided we understand our terms. Who is a user of the state's roads? In our modern civilization everybody uses the roads. The economic life of our society depends upon adequate highway transportation.

The citizen who does not own or drive a car becomes road user every time a doctor drives to his door, every time a bus transports him to work or his children to school.

Among those who benefit most from our roads are the state's big corporations. Federal aid to our highways is based, in many instances, on the principle that the roads are an extension of plant assembly lines. There is nothing inconsistent in obtaining a portion of our road funds from the corporations who use the roads in production.

SHORT STORY

No
Regrets

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

VALERIA'S AFFAIR with Eliot Harvey had proved extremely gratifying. After all, Eliot was the most handsome and the most glamorous man at Newfane Lake, and the confession of his love had rather flattered her vanity. But the duration had been brief. Two months, to be exact. She had smiled a little wistfully the night she handed back his ring.

"It's been swell fun, Eliot, but it can't last. The feeling's all on the surface. It isn't real."

"Not real?" He stared at her, unbelieving. "Good Lord, Val." But she interrupted him with a gesture of finality.

"It's no use, Eliot.
You're far too glamorous and handsome to fall in love. I tried hard, but it didn't work." She patted his hand maternally. "Summer romances are fun, and this has been the best ever. No regrets."

A hurt look came into his eyes, to be replaced an instant later by exaggerated indifference. He tossed the ring, caught it, pocketed it. "O K., sister. I guess I can stand it."
His eyes held that smug, "it's-your-funeral" look that so fitted his role.

She felt released, free again. When Doug Metcalf asked her to attend the Country Club ball with him she accepted without qualms of conscience. Doug was big and homely.

"Thought there was no harm in asking," he grinned. "You won't find me as spectacular as Eliot."

He looked at her curiously, seemed on the point of asking a question and thought better of it. She knew that he, like everyone else, was wondering if her heart was broken. Well, let them find out for themselves. Their pity annoyed her. Who was this Eliot Harvey, a god or something?

The night of the ball, dancing with Doug Metcalf, she saw Eliot floating by with Sheelah Jackson.
He was looking down into her upturned face, oblivious to everything else. Valeria felt a little pang, and impatient at herself, gave her attention to Doug. Doug was watching her and there was worship in his eyes.

They found a vacant bench behind some shrubbery and Valeria
sat down.

SHE WAS DANCING a dreamy waltz with Doug when Eliot cut in. Surprised, she found herself in his arms scarcely before his familiar features became recognizable.

"Well, well, well. Look who's here! How's the Don Juan of Newfane?"

"Val, let's go out and get a punch." His tone was almost harsh.

Valeria hesitated. "All right,"
she said. "I could use something like that. It's been a destructive evening. I'm worn out."

They moved into the alcove where the drinks were being served. He led her beyond and through French doors that opened onto the terrace. The place was crowded, but they found a vacant bench behind some shrubbery, and Valeria
sat down. It was good to sit. Eliot bent over her.

"Listen, Val. I can't stand it!
I've been crazy ever since you gave me back the ring. I'm going mad!
You've got to come back to me!"

Amazed, she stared up at him. His eyes were burning coals. He stood there stripped of his pride and dignity, no longer the confident Don Juan,
the breaker of women's hearts.

"Eliot, you're drunk!"

"I'm not! Val, don't you see I'm not! Don't you see how much I love you!" He dropped down beside her, and suddenly his head was against her breast. He wept.

Val was frightened and bewildered. So all his indifference, his casual acceptance of her decision to break their engagement, his interest in Sheelah Jackson—it had all been pretense! A sham! A mask! An attempt to maintain his Don Juan standing, to nourish his pride and vanity and conceit.

She stood up, suddenly contemptuous, ashamed of her own doubts, disgusted with his weakness. She looked down at him, without pity or compassion or regret, turned away and went eagerly back to find Copendable Doug.

If there were some way to strip a Cadillac of every identifying emblem it possesses, and judge it solely by the way it rides and handles and performs—it would still be quickly recognizable as the "Standard of the World."

But think what a Cadillac brings you in addition to the solid value of its engineering and performance and comfort and handling ease—the wonderful Cadillac name!

Perhaps in all the world, there is no inanimate object which speaks so eloquently as the Cadillac shield. It talks of background, of progress, and of faultless workmanship.

It proclaims a promise of years and years of the utmost motoring satisfaction. It speaks of its owner, and identifies him as a man of accomplishment and discrimination.

In fact, there is nothing good and wonderful a motor car can bring that isn't promised or implied by the beautiful Cadillac shield. And it speaks a universal language, which is understood and appreciated the wide world over.

And remember, you pay no extra penalty for the pride and pleasure of having this great and distinguished name.
They come as a "special dividend" with every Cadillac car.

We deeply regret that we are unable to deliver new Cadillac cars without some delay. But the demand for the car is unprecedented—and much of the company's energies and materials are now being devoted to the needs of national security. Once the car is delivered into your hands, however, we know you'll agree that—patience never brought a richer reward.

mission is granted private firms.

The state paid $27,000 in bounties during January. Payments were made on 5,240 foxes, 52 coyotes, 17 bobcats and one wolf. Except for six coyotes, all animals bountied were taken in the Upper Peninsula.

Following the escape of 11 more inmates at the Boys Vocational School in Lansing, city officials waxed wrathful. Says one Lansing councilman: "The legislature should take action to confine the youngsters at the institution or get the darned thing out of here.

The "little Hoover commission" still is kicking up dust in Michigan. Latest recommendations ask creation of a stronger and more centralized state treasury department. This department would absorb the present revenue department, state board of escheats, gasoline tax division of the secretary of state's office, municipal finance commission and part of the auditor general's office.

But state officials aren't too alarmed. Says one worker: "It sounds good in theory—but could they get up the new department and would it work?"

Another bugaboo of the legislature has breathed its last for another year or two. The possibility of a four year term for Michigan governors has been swamped by a bi-partisan vote in the house of representatives. Long sought by governors—and others—the question will rise again, be assured.

Did you know that the legislature, due to constitutional earmarking of funds, has control of only 36 per cent of the state's general fund, that more than 78 per cent of the sales tax revenue is permanently diverted to schools, cities, villages and townships? That's why the legislature is having such a tough time trying to find a new source of revenue as inflation mounts the cost of public services and as remaining state funds are more and more restricted.

Let's follow your physician's prescription into your pharmacist's compounding room . . .

The pharmacist's first act is to carefully interpret the prescription—check its signs and symbols to make sure of their precise meanings. Your safety is his legal responsibility.

That done, he assembles the necessary components for your prescription from the thousands of drugs he has in his stock. He knows them all intimately—their dosage, usage and properties.

Then he skillfully uses his specialized equipment to weigh, mix, or combine the ingredients of your prescription in strict accordance with your physician's specifications.

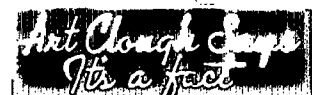

He checks and rechecks every ingredient he uses, and every step in his compounding technique. Instructions are confirmed, and directions stated on the label in such a way that no misunderstanding will occur. Finally, he registers your prescription by number and files it away for future reference.

In Chancery, No. 311

In the Matter of the Petition of John B. Martin, Jr., Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.

On reading and filing the petition of the Auditor General of the State of Michigan praying for a decree in favor of the State of Michigan, against each parcel of land therein described, for the amounts therein specified, claimed to be due for taxes, interest and charges on each such parcel of land, and that such lands be sold for the amounts so claimed by the State of Michigan.

It is ordered that said petition be brought on for hearing and decree at the April term of this Court, to be held at Grayling in the County of Crawford, State of Michigan on the 10th day of April, A. D. 1951, at the opening of the Court on that day, and that all persons interested in such lands or any part thereof, desiring to contest the lien claimed thereon by the State of Michigan, for such taxes, interest and charges, or any part thereof, shall appear in said Court, on or before the first day of the term of this Court above mentioned, and that in default thereof the same will be taken as confessed and a decree will be taken and entered as prayed for in said petition. And it is further ordered that in pursuance of said decree the lands described in said petition for which a decree of sale shall be made, will be sold for the several taxes, interest and charges thereon as determined by such decree, on the first Tuesday in May thereafter, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. on said day, or on the day or days subsequent thereto as may be necessary to complete the sale of said lands and of each and every parcel thereof, at the office of the county treasurer, or at such convenient place as shall be selected by him at the county seat of the County of Crawford, State of Michigan; and that the sale then and there made will be a public sale, and each parcel described in the decree shall be separately exposed for sale for the taxes, interest and charges, and the sale shall be made to the person paying the full amount charged against such parcel, and accepting a conveyance of the smallest undivided fee simple interest therein; or, if no person will pay the taxes and charges and take a conveyance of less than the entire thereof, then the whole parcel shall be offered and sold. If any parcel of land cannot be sold for taxes, interest and charges, such parcel shall be passed over for the time being, and shall, on the succeeding day, or before the close of the sale, be reoffered, and if, on such second offering, or during such sale, the same cannot be sold for the amount aforesaid, the County Treasurer shall bid off the same in the name of the State.

Witness the Hon. John C. Shaffer, Circuit Judge, and the seal of said Circuit Court of Crawford County this 27th day of January, A. D. 1951.

Leo Lovely, Clerk.STATE OF MICHIGAN,
In the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford
In Chancery,

In the Matter of the Petition of John B. Martin, Jr., Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Crawford, in Chancery:

John B. Martin, Jr., Auditor General of the State of Michigan, respectfully shows unto the Court:

1. That he is the Auditor General of the State of Michigan and makes and files this petition under, by virtue of and pursuant to the provisions of Act No. 206 of the Public Acts of 1933, as amended, and Act No. 126 of the Public Acts of 1933, as amended.

2. That Schedule A annexed hereto is the tax record required by the act first above mentioned and contains the description of all lands in the aforesaid county upon which taxes, which were assessed for the years mentioned therein, have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, the description of all lands in said county heretofore bid off in the name of the State and thus held and upon which taxes which were assessed subsequent to the tax for which such lands were sold to the State have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent, and the description of all lands in said county which are delinquent for any installment of taxes under the provisions of the act last above mentioned;

3. That extended separately in said schedule against each description of said lands therein contained are (a) the total amount of delinquent taxes upon said description for the non-payment of which the same may lawfully be sold at the next annual tax sale, (b) interest computed thereon as provided by law to the first day of May, next ensuing, (c) collection fee of four per cent and (d) $1.00 for expenses, all in accordance with the provisions of the act first above mentioned;

4. That all of the aforesaid taxes, interest and charges are valid, delinquent and unpaid, and have remained delinquent and unpaid for sufficient time to authorize and require, as provided by the foregoing acts, the sale of the aforesaid parcels of land against which they were assessed and are extended in said schedule at the next annual tax sale for the non-payment thereof, and that the said taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses so extended in said schedule against each parcel of land therein described constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein and against which extended in favor of the people of the State of Michigan, the payment of which lien this court may enforce as a preferred or first claim upon such lands by the sale thereof.

Wherefore your petitioner prays:

a. That within the time provided by law this court may determine and decree that the aforesaid taxes, interest, collection fee and charges are valid and constitute a valid lien upon each of the said several parcels of land described in said schedule as therein extended;

b. That within the time provided by law this court make a final decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land therein contained;

c. That said decree provide that in default of the payment so ordered of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands in said schedule, the said several parcels of land, or such interest therein as may be necessary to satisfy the amount decreed against the same, shall severally be sold as to this court may seem just and equitable.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated, January 26, 1951.

JOHN B. MARTIN, JR.,
Auditor General of the State of Michigan,
for and in behalf of said State.

FORD
WINS AGAIN!

V-8 TAKES FIRST PLACE IN CLASS "A"
1951 MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN

Both Ford V-8 and SIX deliver more than 25.9 miles per gallon

Cruising 340-mph too proves Ford Economy

Agree with you... it's high honor for Ford! In the most important economy trial for American stock model cars... the famous annual Mobilgas Economy Run... A Ford 100-h.p. V-8 equipped with Overdrive took first place competing against all cars in its price class, making 54.587 ton-miles per gallon and 25.994 miles per gallon. And its companion in quality, the new Ford SIX with Overdrive, was right up there with the winner. In fact, both cars averaged better than 25.9 miles per gallon.

Traditional Ford economy, for the second straight year, has been proved in open competition. Proved on the tough 840-mile grind from Los Angeles to the Grand Canyon... a course that included city traffic, below-sea-level desert heat and 7,000-foot mountain passes. Ford's Automatic Mileage Maker, standard equipment on all Ford V-8's and SIXES, contributed to this great achievement by squeezing the last mile out of every drop of gasoline.

Why not "Test Drive" the new Ford at your neighborhood Ford Dealer? There's no better way to be convinced that "You can pay more but you can't buy better!"

"The AAA Contest Board determines the winner by a 'ton-mile per gallon' formula to insure equal chances for all cars to make clear regardless of size and weight. Two miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by number of miles travelled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed."

The Frederic and Maple Forest Sportsmens Club party was well attended Saturday night. Helping make the party a success were Cliff Edwards of Grayling, who furnished the Shamrocks, which were very much appreciated, also the music furnished by the Hamlin Trio from Alma, was sure nice and full of pep, you just couldn't help but dance to the rhythm of those good old "Irish tunes." Fred Crooks was right in his usual happy mood at the "mike" cracking jokes on all of us and kept us dancing so fast Charley got lost and danced in the wrong set several times. Fred's wife was out of town caring for new grandnephew and Bill Ecklund sang "My Wild Irish Rose" and dedicated it to Bill's wife, Jackie. You could just tell by the looks it was St. Patrick's day, even the refreshments were green. Tho
